About Your Upcoming Wedding

We are pleased you have chosen to celebrate your wedding at Broadmoor United Methodist Church. The celebration of Christian marriage is an occasion of great joy and excitement and, at the same time, of great significance and reverence. It is a sacred ritual in which two persons pledge themselves to each other under the blessing of God and are united in the covenant of matrimony. To ensure your ceremony is a joyous occasion, the Worship Committee has prepared these guidelines to answer your questions. Our purpose is to help you plan a service of worship which is dignified and meaningful.

Minister and Ceremony

One of the ministers on the staff of Broadmoor United Methodist Church will perform the marriage ceremony. You may include a clergy relative or clergy family friend as one of the assisting ministers. Please speak to the minister conducting your wedding and he or she will extend an invitation to the other clergy.

A pre-marital conference with the officiating minister is required to consider the spiritual and theological aspects of the covenant of marriage. The officiating minister will explain at this conference the additional pre-marital requirements, such as pre-marital counseling, licensing, and more, for couples having their wedding at Broadmoor United Methodist Church.

If you wish to have programs/bulletins at your ceremony, you must provide a sample for review by the minister prior to having them printed. Broadmoor United Methodist church will not print programs/bulletins for the wedding.

Wedding parties are required to get the minister's approval before finalizing any wedding plans, including the sending of invitations.

To schedule a wedding at Broadmoor United Methodist Church, follow these requirements:

Wedding Director

A Wedding Director is assigned to each wedding. The Wedding Director will be present at the wedding rehearsal and service to assist the officiating minister.

Although you may have hired a Wedding Director not associated with Broadmoor United Methodist Church, it is to be understood that during all events held at Broadmoor United Methodist Church the officiating minister and Broadmoor United Methodist Church's Wedding Director are responsible for all of the procedures to be followed for your wedding.

Rehearsal Dinner / Wedding Reception

Broadmoor United Methodist Church, in addition to hosting your wedding, also has accommodations for either a rehearsal dinner, wedding reception, or both.

When the rehearsal dinner and/or wedding reception is on Broadmoor UMC's campus, the bride and groom will make their own arrangements with a licensed and insured, approved independent caterer. Broadmoor UMC will provide the reception room, kitchen, tables, white tablecloths, and chairs.

All trash must be picked up and brought to the dumpsters at the end of the parking lot. The kitchen must be cleaned, with any of Broadmoor UMC's dishes washed, dried, and put back in their respective places.

The Wedding Director's only responsibility is to ensure the bride and groom's arrival at the reception.

Decorations

The Sanctuary of Broadmoor United Methodist Church is a place of worship; therefore, the altar and pulpit will remain in their established positions. No decorations may be placed on the altar or altar rail. Our experience has shown that aisle cloths can be hazardous for the wedding party and may not be used. Thumbtacks or scotch tape should not be used anywhere in the church. A pair of brass candelabras with oil candles is available for your use, as well as a unity candle stand. You must provide your own unity candles. Flowers may be placed on the pedestals that flank the altar.

If you would like to leave flowers from your wedding for use in the following Sunday worship services, please contact Mary Saltzman at the church office (225-924-6269 or msaltzman@broadmoormethodist.org). It is Broadmoor United Methodist Church's tradition on Monday mornings to rearrange the Sunday worship services flowers into smaller vases and bring them to Broadmoor United Methodist church members in the hospitals and nursing homes.

The florist shall be held responsible for any damage incurred through the decoration of the church. The florist is also responsible for the immediate removal of all decorations upon completion of the wedding.

No free-standing candle stands are allowed in the aisles. If using aisle candles, the candle stands must be secured to the arm rest of the pew. Bows or greenery should be attached with plastic pew clips.

Candle holders may be used along the sidewalk in front of the Sanctuary. Stake-type holders can be no more than twelve inches from the sidewalk. These must have glass globes.

Photography

Professional photographers are expected to be thoughtful in helping to preserve the spiritual atmosphere of weddings. The photographer may take pictures of the wedding party from the modesty rail until the end of the bride's processional. After the bride is at the chancel, marking the beginning of the worship services, timed exposures (no flash) from the balcony are permissible until "the kiss." Recessional photos may be made in the aisle from behind the pew of the last seated guest until the bride and groom pass. No flash photographs may be taken during the ceremony by anyone, including your guests.

Videotaping is permitted; however, the positioning of equipment should be cleared with the Wedding Director and must remain stationary. The videographer must check to make sure that the frequency of the microphones used to tape the wedding does not interfere with the church's sound system.

It is the bride's responsibility to ensure that the restrictions and rules are clearly understood by the photographer, relatives, and friends. The photographer/videographer must sign and return the enclosed Wedding Guidelines for Photographer/Videographer at least two weeks prior to the wedding.
